

Cuba, Cuba! in New York

The photo exhibit, Cuba, Cuba!, is currently on display at the New York based International Center of Photography, consisting of photos by 20 Cubans, including Alberto Korda, Raúl Corrales and Marucha, and US photographers, Burt Glinn and Elliott Erwitt.

The exhibition provides an overview of 65 years of the island's history through more than one hundred pictures taken from the 1950's up to present days.

The works show the decadence of mid-20th century, the victory of the January 1st, 1959 Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro's and the Rebel Army's entrance to Havana on January 8th, 1959, and today's Cuba. The exhibition, Cuba, Cuba!, will be open to international photo fans until September 7th.
