

Chile Launches Unit to Unlock Pinochet's Military Secrets

---

Santiago de Chile, August 19 (teleSUR-RHC)-- Chile has created a unit within the
The Chilean government launched the Human Rights Unit after accusations surfaced
Defense Minister Jose Antonio Gomez said the new unit will compliment the work
The former magistrate insisted that he did not want to discredit the entire military Pinochet rose to power in Chile in a bloody military coup, displacing socialist
The Chilean courts are currently investigating around 1,000 cases of kidnapping
Much of the problem in investigating these Chilean cases, and those across Latin
Pinochet himself continued to be head of the military until 1998, eight years

Last month, five former Chilean army officers were charged for their involvement in the 1973 coup. Earlier, seven former soldiers were charged for complicity in the incident in 1973. Of this particular case, Solis said, "Many cases can be reopened. If the cases

---

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/66202-chile-launches-unit-to-unlock-pinochets-military-secrets>

Radio Habana Cuba