

Cuban Company Labiofam Opens Branch in Bolivia

Cochabamba, August 21 (Prensa Latina) -- Cuban LABIOFAM Business Group has opened its first branch in Cochabamba, Bolivia, in a ceremony attended by diplomats, businessmen and departmental authorities.

Labiofam, which has 17 member companies, began its work in the 1960s, especially in the production of vaccines and medicines, to which other sectors joined over time.

Over the years, it incorporated new areas and modern technologies with the aim of finding solutions for the Cuban economy. Its representative in Bolivia, Pavel Pizart, told Prensa Latina that the company has received recognition both inside and outside of Cuba.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/66484-cuban-company-labiofam-opens-branch-in-bolivia>

Radio Habana Cuba