

Sports News Roundup August 28

---

.....

Cuba continues without adding medals after five days of competitions at the World Athletics Championships in Beijing. The defeats of Asley Gonzalez and Yalennis Castillo, and Onix Cortes' injury continue to weigh on the team. Gonzalez, runner of London 2012 Olympic Games was beaten in his second start for the team. The also monarch of Rio de Janeiro 2013, did not present himself in the same way. On the same day, the injury of Onix Cortés, bronze medalist of the previous edition, was confirmed. Cortes won his first bout by Yuko to Chinese Chen Fei, but 46 seconds until the end of the match. Cortes didn't compete against Russian Irina Gazieva, in order to preserve her health. For Saturday, the last day of the individual tournament, all hopes of Cuba lie on the team.

.....

Only a few hours remain in the World Athletics Championships in Beijing, which is expected to be a decisive day. Discus thrower Denia Caballero and pole vaulter Yarisley Silva obtained their best results so far.

Friday began with the decathlon, Yordanis García among participants, while Yul
The discussion of medals would leave behind 20 years of waiting, because the l
Cuba now covers the second heat in the seventh lane and will have among its op
These quartets are the ones with the best marks, 2:54.29 and 2:56.75, in that
Also Trinidad and Tobago and Brazil aspire to the qualifications also with bet
The other segment includes Great Britain, Bahamas and Poland, with the best ma
The semifinals will be held on Saturday morning and Sunday night will be the c

---

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/deportes/67168-sports-news-roundup-august-28>

Radio Habana Cuba