

Honduran Police Torture Four Teens Over Land Conflict

Tegucigalpa, August 29 (teleSUR-RHC)-- A Honduran human rights group reported The teenagers were detained on July 17 this year, in the town of Marcala, depar According to the version, the teens told the "On Line Defenders" of human righ The oldest child, 17, explained that without any employment opportunity, he ev Another child, 14, who was arrested on his first day of school, said that when The youngest, 13 years old, arrested when he was bringing food for his uncle a The last boy, 14, declared that the day before their arrest, the alleged owner Human rights abuses from the part of the security forces have become a widespr Corruption has reportedly infiltrated the police at a very alarming level, as

Moreover, a historical drought has been hitting Central American farmers hard,

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/67264-honduran-police-torture-four-teens-over-land-conflict>

Radio Habana Cuba