

Granma Newspaper Focuses on Papal Visit

Havana, September 4 (RHC) – This morning's edition of Granma newspaper calls attention to the historic visit of Pope Francis to Cuba later this month. In a front page article, the newspaper says that the Pontiff will be welcomed by a cheerful and multi-cultural people that respects religious liberties.

This visit takes place in the framework of the 80th anniversary of the establishment of relations between the Vatican and Cuba, as well as the Centennial of the proposal of Our Lady of Charity of El Cobre as Cuba's patron saint.

The Bishop of Rome will be in Cuba from the 19th to the 22nd of September, and will tour three cities of the island.
