

Shooting at Community College in U.S. Leaves At Least 15 Dead

Portland, October 1 (RHC)-- At least 15 people have been killed and 20 others wounded in a shooting at a community college in the U.S. state of Oregon after a gunman opened fire, RT reports.

A tweet at 10:45 a.m. local time on Thursday said that there was an active shooter at Umpqua Community College in Douglas County, Oregon.

Umpqua Community College has 3,300 full-time students and 16,000 part-time students.

According to reports from the State of Oregon Police, the shooter has been arrested. Also, commissioner from Douglas County, Oregon, Chris Boice, has confirmed to CNN that the alleged perpetrator of the shooting is in custody.
