Belgian Organizations Describe as Essential End US Blockade vs Cuba

Brussels, October 17 (RHC-PL)-- "The lifting of the economic, commercial and financial blockade agair Cuba is essential in the process of achieving a real normalization of the relations between the two countries".

This was expressed by members of Beweging.net, network of workers' organizations of Christian leani and World Solidarity, in charge of the international cooperation, in a letter sent to the Cuban Ambassa in Belgium Norma Goicochea.

"The blockade is a policy that affects the Cuban per in a disproportionate way. Our main concern is that negatively impacts the human rights of the people", said.

On October 27, for 24th consecutive time, the UN General Assembly will debate and vote on a Cubasponsored UN resolution against the US blockade.
