

Ecuadorean President Rafael Correa Debates Opposition

Image not found or type unknown

Quito, October 29 (teleSUR-RHC)-- Ecuadorean President Rafael Correa t

Ecuador, under President Correa, has spent the last eight years trying

However, in recent months, the government has faced major criticism both insid

Correa, a trained economist who received his doctorate from the University of

Former Economy Minister Mauricio Pozo; former President of the Ecuadorean Soci

Being a debate among economists, many of the discussions revolved around techn

At one point, Correa walked over to his opponents to hand-deliver a copy of hi

Opposition politicians argued the country is in the midst of an economic crisi

Correa's opponents were highly critical of government spending, arguing the co

President Correa responded saying, "Ecuador is doing in eight years what wasn'

Under Correa, the government has prioritized social investment, particularly i

Correa argued Ecuador was not in a crisis but did not deny that the drop in th

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/74239-ecuadorean-president-rafael-correa-debates-opposition>

Radio Habana Cuba