

Northrop Grumman Wins $20 Billion Contract to Build Bombers

Washington, October 30 (RHC)-- The Pentagon has awarded Northrop Grumman a more than $20 billion contract to build new long-range stealth bombers capable of carrying nuclear weapons.

According to reports from Washington, this is the largest Pentagon contract in more than a decade and could eventually be valued at $80 billion and yield 100 new bombers.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/74369-northrop-grumman-wins-20-billion-contract-to-build-bombers>

Radio Habana Cuba