

International Groups Rally in Solidarity With Venezuela Amid U.S. Threats

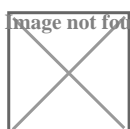

Image not found or type unknown

Caracas, November 2 (teleSUR-RHC)-- Social movements, intellectuals, and

The expressions of support come as President Nicolas Maduro condemned

President Maduro rejected statements made on Thursday by U.S. Southern Command

But despite potential aggression from the U.S., communities and movements in Latin

In Peru and Bolivia, for example, activists have launched campaigns to raise awareness

"Latin American people and the Bolivian people are firm in supporting the Bolivian

In Central America, El Salvador's governing FMLN party also expressed solidarity

Beyond Latin America, other communities have also been standing up in support

Events have also recently been held in Argentina, Colombia, Brazil, Dominican

Almost 20 million Venezuelans are registered to vote to elect 167 lawmakers in

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/74591-international-groups-rally-in-solidarity-with-venezuela-amid-us-threats>

Radio Habana Cuba