

Peruvian Minister for Foreign Trade and Tourism to Arrive in Cuba

Lima, November 2 (RHC)-- Peru's Minister for Foreign Trade and Tourism Magali Silva will travel to Cuba in the coming days, heading a large business delegation. During her stay, the Peruvian minister will hold talks with her Cuban counterpart, Rodrigo Malmierca.

According to sources from the Peruvian Foreign Trade and Tourism Ministry, the visit will be aimed at expanding and strengthening bilateral trade relations, as well as attending activities in the framework of Havana's 33rd International Trade fair FIHAV 2015.
