

U.S. and French Presidents Vow to Increase Airstrikes Against ISIS Terrorists

Washington, November 25 (RHC)-- U.S. President Obama and French President Francois Hollande have agreed to increase airstrikes against the self-proclaimed Islamic State in Iraq and Syria following the Paris attacks.

As Hollande visited Washington, D.C. on Tuesday for talks with Obama, French warplanes bombed ISIS targets near the Iraqi city of Mosul.

Emerging from the meeting with Obama, Hollande pledged to press ahead with United Nations climate talks opening Monday in Paris, saying they are a "beautiful symbol" after the Paris attacks.
