

Israelis Shoot Dead Another Palestinian in Jerusalem

Ramallah, November 30 (RHC)-- A Palestinian teenage boy has been killed by Israelis in East Jerusalem. On Sunday, the Palestinian Health Ministry confirmed the death of 17-year old Ayman Abbasi during clashes with Israeli soldiers. In a statement, Israeli police said officers fired at a Palestinian, claiming he was holding a petrol bomb.

Earlier in the day, Israeli forces killed a Palestinian man in the occupied West Bank at the Damascus Gate, which is one of the main entrances to the Old City of Jerusalem. Israeli police claimed the Palestinian was shot after he stabbed and moderately injured an Israeli policeman in East Jerusalem.

More than 100 Palestinians have been killed since early October after violence erupted in Jerusalem due to Israeli incursions into the al-Aqsa Mosque. More than 2,000 Palestinians have also been injured in clashes with Israeli forces, forcing the Red Crescent to declare an emergency in occupied Palestinian territories.

Palestinian demonstrators want unrestricted access to worship at al-Aqsa, Islam's third holiest place, a site also revered by Jews. The protesters also demand an end to Israel's decades-long military occupation of Palestine and the cessation of settlement building, which are both illegal under international laws.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/internacionales/77342-israelis-shoot-dead-another-palestinian-in-jerusalem>

Radio Habana Cuba