

ETECSA Telephone Company Announces Opening of New Public Wi-Fi Areas

Havana, December 5 (RHC)-- Cuba's telephone company ETECSA announced the opening this week of three new public Wi-Fi connection zones in Cuba.

The company said the number of wireless Internet connection spots in Cuba now total 54, extending to parks and urban hubs in different areas across the island.

The three new Wi-Fi sites are located at Coyula Park, in the capital; along Calixto Garcia Avenue in Guantánamo; and at the Todo en Uno shopping mall in Varadero Beach.
