

General Secretary of UNASUR to Attend Havana's International Conference on José Martí

Havana, January 19 (RHC)-- Ernesto Samper, General Secretary of the Union of South American Countries (UNASUR) has announced his coming to Havana to attend an international conference on Cuba's National Hero José Martí, set for January 25th through the 28th.

The event, entitled: "With All and for the Good of All" is sponsored by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organizations (UNESCO).

The conference, in the framework of activities to mark the 163rd birthday anniversary of Martí, aims to convene people of good-will from all walks of life and representing different lines of thought. There will be representatives of institutions and governments around the world who are interested in the life and work of José Martí, particularly his ideas regarding the construction of a better, equitable world.

Radio Habana Cuba