

Cuban President Meets Intense Agenda in France

Paris, February 2 (RHC-PL) -- Cuban President Raul Castro fulfilled Tuesday an intense agenda in France, on the last day of his state visit.

The president began the day with a meeting with the Director General of UNESCO, Irina Bokova, at the organization's headquarters in Paris.

Following this, President Raúl held talks with French authorities, among them the president of the National Assembly of France, the president of the Senate President, the Mayor of Paris and the French prime minister. After those meetings, the Cuban head of state visited the Museum of Man.

On Monday, Raul Castro and French President Francois Hollande reaffirmed the desire to strengthen the bilateral relationship.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/83041-cuban-president-meets-intense-agenda-in-france>

Radio Habana Cuba