

Venezuela Hosts Discussions on the Need for Regional Integration

Miranda, Venezuela, Feb 26 (RHC) Latin American communication experts discuss in Venezuela the importance and regional influence of the Bolivarian Alliance of the Peoples of Our America- People's Treaty (ALBA-TCP).

Alcides García, coordinator of Alba Communications Secretariat, said these sessions in Miranda State consist of political debates, exchange of ideas, and will introduce a plan to help unite every social movement on the continent.

García said that just after closing the sessions on Sunday, a media campaign to support Venezuelan efforts to confront the national right-wing plots, and launch an emancipation project will take off.
