

Foreign Minister Delcy Rodríguez to Voice Venezuela's Commitment to Human Rights

Caracas, Mar 1 (RHC) Venezuelan Foreign Minister Delcy Rodríguez, traveled to Geneva to brief the international community on her country's achievements in human rights.

Delcy Rodríguez said she will explain the National Plan on Human Rights which President Nicolas Maduro signed last February 27th, in defense of the victims of the violence that rocked the country in 2014.

The Foreign Minister said this plan will also protect the people from new right-wing attacks.
