

Cuba Goes to Moscow's International Fair of Tourism and Travels

Moscow, Mar 24 (RHC) Cuban Senior Tourism Vice Minister, Alexis Trujillo, leads a 20-member delegation, that along more than 32,000 tourism professionals, will bargain connections and sign agreements in Moscow's 20th International Trade Fair of Tourism and Travels, confirming the Fair's importance for Cuba.

The stand, to represent the firms Gran Caribe, Sol Meliá, Cubanacán, Gaviota, Isla Azul, Akord and Havanatur, is ready to do business with an agenda for how to minimize slowdowns and set the environment to recover growth in arrivals seeking cultural offers, beyond sun and sea destinations.
