

Cuban Foreign Minister Visits National Parliament of Federal Republic of Germany

Havana, May 10 (RHC)-- On Monday, Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla visited the national parliament of the Federal Republic of Germany –The German Bundestag.

According to the Cuban Foreign Ministry (MINREX), Minister Rodríguez and his delegation held talks with representatives of the legislative body's Group for Central America and the Caribbean, which is made up of deputies from all the political parties represented in the German Bundestag.

MINREX said that the issues discussed during those meetings included the current state of relations between Germany and Cuba, as well as the prospects of strengthened cooperation and trade ties.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/93061-cuban-foreign-minister-visits-national-parliament-of-federal-republic-of-germany>

Radio Habana Cuba