

Cuba and China Strengthen Cooperation in the Field of Justice

CUBA

CHINA

Beijing, June 28 (RHC)-- Maria Esther Reus, Minister of Justice of Cuba, and her counterpart in China, Wu Aiyong, have agreed on the potential shared by both countries to exchange experiences in this area.

At a meeting in Beijing, the ministers discussed the excellent state of relations between the two peoples, and the existing capacity of increasing cooperation on legal issues for the development of the two territories, on the path to a prosperous and sustainable socialism.

As part of her agenda, Cuba's Minister of Justice is also scheduled to meet with Qiao Xiaoyang, chairman of the Committee on Legal Affairs of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress, and Attorney General Cao Jianming.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/index.php/en/noticias/nacionales/98425-cuba-and-china-strengthen-cooperation-in-the-field-of-justice>

Radio Habana Cuba